Acceptance of the Nominations.

President's House, by the Committee of the of his nomination by that body. The following is Gen. Grant's letter of acceptance :

EXECUTIVE MANSION. Washington, D. C., June 10, 1872. Hon. Thomas Settle, President of the National Republican Convention; Paul Strobach, Elisha Baxter, C. A. Sargeant and other Vice-Presidents:

Gentlemen-Your letter of this date advising me of the action of the Convention held in Philadelphia, Pa., on the 5th and 6th of this month, and of my unanimous nomination for the Presidency by it, has been received. I accept the nomination, and through you return my heartfelt thanks to your constituents for this mark of their confidence and support. If elected in November, and protected by a kind Providence with health and strength to perform the duties of the high trust conferred on me, I promise the same zeal and devotion to the good of the whole people in the future of my official life as shown in the past. Experience may guide me in avoiding the mistakes inevitable with novices in all professions and in all occu-

When relieved from the responsibilities of my present trust by the election of a successor, whether it be at the end of this term or the next, I hope to leave to him as Executive a country at peace within its own borders, at peace with outside nations, a credit at home and abroad aud without embarrassing questions to threaten its future prosperity.

With the expression of a desire to see a speedy healing of all bitterness of feeling between sections, parties or races of citizens, and the time when the title of citizen carries with it the protection and privileges to the humblest that it does to the most exalted, I subscribe myself. Very respectfully, your obedient servant,

(Signed) U. S. GRANT. Senator Wilson, was also waited upon and officially informed of his nomination. To this he made the following reply:

I will in a day or two give you an answer in writing to this communication. I take this occasion, however, to thank you and the memhers of the Convention you represent for this manifestation of confidence. As I neither asked nor wrote to any member of the Convention to give me a vote, I am all the more grateful for their generous support.

I am grateful for the friendly tone of the Republican press of the country. For thirty-six years, in public life and in private life, I have striven to maintain the distinguishing idea of the Republican party, the freedom and equality of all men.

I have striven ever to be true to my country and to the rights of our common humanity, to know no sectional interest, nor race nor color. In the future, as in the past, I shall unfalteringly adhere to those principles, which are the convictions of my judgment, heart and conscience. I am clearly of the opinion that the great soldier who rendered such illustrious seryices to the country in the great civil war will be re-elected President of the United States. His humanity to the vanquished, his firmness in vindicating the rights of the humble and defenceless, and his devotion to the leading ideas of the Republican party cannot be questioned. I esteem it a high honor to be associated with him in the coming contest. While I am grateful to the friends who gave me such generous support I honor those who adhered with so much devotion to Mr. Colfax.

We have been personal and political friends for nearly twenty years, and it is a source of profound satisfaction to me that our personal relations have not been disturbed by the recent contest. While I shall never cease to feel grateful to the friends who honored me by their support, I shall ever entertain sincere respect for those who deemed it to be their duty to give their support to others. I hope that we shall all strive to win to our support every honest and patriotic man in the country, every man true to the rights of humanity, every man who would elevate the condition of the toiling millions and have our republic become a great Christian nation, an example to the world. Let it be understood that our ranks are wide open to receive all who are devoted to the country, and who would advance the happiness and general well-being of all sections of the land and all conditions of the people. We Republicans should offer the hand of reconciliation to all fair minded and honorable men, and use all legitimate means to achieve success for the honor and salvation of the country, as well as for that of the party which saved the Union and established freedom in every part of the

MRS. DR. WALKER. - After the appropriation bill had been recommitted, and the time of adjournment had been extended, the House took a recess from half-past twelve until halfpast two. A number of members remained in the hall, and a number of visitors were also ou the floor, when Mrs. Dr. Walker, arrayed in all the glory of a Dolly Varden short coat and pants, entered the hall, and ascending the steps to the Clerk's desk, assumed a position near Mr. James W. Clayton, and proceeded to harangue those present on the subject of the bill making appropriation for nurses who served during the war. As she could scarcely see over the top of the reading Clerk's desk, she mounted a chair, and throwing off her hat, commenced a speech in earnest. An officer of the House informed her that she could not make a speech there, when she ascended to the Speaker's chair, whence she was finally disloged by order of Mr. Buxton, the Doorkeeper, and marched out of the hall, all the while protesting that her ejection was an insult which would be resented by all the women of the land, who had sent her there to plead their cause. Mrs. Walker stated that she had the permission of some of the members to make a ten-minutes speech, and she could not unders and how the doorkeepers could exclude her when she supposed that the Congressmen controlled the House. The incident created no little amusement for those who witnessed it .-

REFORM SCHOOL -- Connecticut has a model reform school, in which unruly boys are not only kept out of mischief and afforded encouragement to grow up useful citizens, but are made to pay the expenses of their own reformation. This school is situated at Meriden. There are now two hundred and ninety-six boys in the institution, who during the past year have earned $67,090. The expenses of the institution during the same time amounted to only $66, 250, leaving a balance of $840 earned by the boys over the cost of their maintenance. Reform schools, and prisons also could be made self-sustaining generally with capable and honest management; and under such management the inmates of these institutions would fare better than they usually fare now. But so long as all appointments to office are made as rewards for political services, often of a disreputable kind, we need expect no such improved condition of affairs.

[COMMUNICATED. THE LAW. - In chapter 55, Code of Virginia, p. 288-90, the following sections appear as part of the law of the Commonwealth : SEC. 9. The principal engineer, fire wardens and communders of any fire companies in town, shall constitute the fire department thereof, and the Council may empower the fire department to make by-laws (to promote its obiects) consistent with the laws of the State and the ordinances of the town.' "Sec. 10. The Council may make such ordi nances in relation to the powers and duties of fire companies, fire wardens and principal en- laid 104 eggs. gineer, as it may deem proper, be not repugnant to the laws of this State.

Has not the law of the State. in regard to the fire department been almost entirely violated

during the last five years, and are not the acts of the so-called fire department, thereby null and void? Is there not a persistent effort on the part of the "fire department" of this city, to array the two younger fire companies in jealousy against the two older ones? Did not the "department" erect a fire company at a cash cost of, at least, a thousand dollars, without the slightest excuse therefor, and that, too, when an engine house had been offered free of cost? Has the "department" recognized one single law created for the government of the true fire department? Has not this "department" acted in a prejudiced manner and constantly refused to entertain any plan whereby harmonious and efficient? Has not the "fire department" lavishly spent money for favorite the City Council willing to allow five men, irresponsible because their acts are not secured by oath or boud of office, to appropriate at their whim, and spend at their caprice, from three to four thousand dollars a year without providing some check against extravagance? A bond with security is required of the measurer of lumber, and six years ago, the chief engineer was not allowed to spend over twenty dollars without the consent of Council. One hundred and fifty times this amount is now spent without let or hindrance, and that too, without the consent or knowledge of Council. Will any sensible citiizen say that this is right, or that such a loose way of conducting public business is either safe or discreet? Honesty among men is rather forced than expected, and the law trusts no man with the use of money belonging to another without ample security; and the law has no protection or remedy for that man who is lost to the paramount importance of guarding by every legal restraint, his pecuniary interest. It is impossible to tell who will be honest or dishonest, and men, like everything else that can be bought by money, are purchasable. A wise man does not pause to make a distinction, and he is not to be turned from his vindication of law and justice, by misrepresentations of his intentions. It is the duty of each citizen to see that all just laws are faithfully and impartially executed, and let the fire wardens manifest a due regard for laws that were in existence be fore they were men, and they will not only be presenting a good example, but will receive the

The Treaty.

NEW YORK, June 11.-The Herald's Washngton dispatch says that the failure of the Freaty of Washington so far as it relates to the settlement of the Alabama claims is at least conceded by the President. Secretary Fish call ed on the President on receipt of Minister Schenck's dispatch with the note of Earl Granville as to the manner of disposing of the business of arbitration on the 15th initant, and the President said the only course was to meet the pretensions of the British government in their own language. Accordingly' Minister Schenck was yesterday instructed to abandon the arbitration. Mr. Schenck's instructions specify that this government declines to become a party to a joint application for an adjournment of the arbitration on the 15th instint. As the arbitratiors, however have power to adjourn, this government will assent to an adjournment if moved by Great Britain. This government cannot be a party to any un derstanding whereby Great Britain submits her argument conditionally, the obligations of the treaty being reciprocal and unqualified.

The United States will feel itself bound to protest against the conditional presentation of argument on the part of Great Britain or any assumed reservation of right on her part to withdraw. If the British government have the right or desire to withdraw from the arbitration or to cancel the appointment of their arbitrator they must do so without asking the consent of this government.

If such notice of withdrawal as is suggested in Granville's note be given, it will be the duty of the American agent and counsel to repel it very decidedly and in terms which self respect will make necessary such notice would instantly terminate all further negotiations on the part of this government. Bancroft Davis has been instructed in accordance with

NEW YORK. June 11 .- A special from Matamoras of the 10th, says:-"The complete destruction of the government army in the Monterey fight is confirmed. Cevallos in a proclamation says the fortune of war has changed the triumph of the 30th of May into an incomprehensible disaster. On the following day, owing to circumstances unknown, Reveulta evacuated Monterey, giving the enemy a triumph. He tells the troops not to be surprised or dispair of ultimate success as he possesses all the elements of success, to be confident provoked. This admission of defeat is of unusual significance. The proclamation, it is thought, indicates that the revolutionists contemplate an attack on Matamoras. Communication between Mier and Monterey has been closed. Cevallos, Govenor of Tamaulipas, has resigned preparatory to taking sides in the present struggle. Corella lost everything, his whole army being killed, wounded, captured, or scattered. His loss includes his ammunition, artillery trains, and $50,000 in money. A letter from Mier announces the approach of Queroga with 2,000 men. Cevallos has started hither with a portion of his command and his hither with a portion of his command and his A. Fleming, heaviest guns, and is expected to arrive soon Warfield & Hall, with his entire command. There is a great Persecution of the Jews.

NEW YORK, June 11 .- A special from Lon don dated the 10th instant says: Earl Granville seconded by the Italian government has proposed a conference of the European Powers to consider the course to be adopted in view of the constant recurrence of the barbarous outbursts against the Jews in Roumania and the propriety of exerting a direct pressure on the Ronmanian government to compel preventive measures. Prince Gortschakoff, in reply to Granville's proposal sympathizes with the persecuted Jews, but apprehends that the course proposed would only excite agitation on the eastern question, and that, therefore, he is not willing to enter into such a conference. He proposes a joint note to the Roumanian government as to its intention and guarantees that it can afford protection to the Jews and thinks that this would awaken it to some sense of its responsibilities. Should the reply to his proposal be unsatisfactory he would suggest a settlement on the basis of the treaty of 1858. Prussia takes the same ground. The answers of other powers are not yet known, but it is probable

THE HUSTON'S CASE.—The investigation just had, is only preliminary, as the case must finally be disposed of before the Ecclesiastical Court, to be composed of not less than ten nor more than thirteen members, to be appointed by the next Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, at its session in Baltimore. This was one of those scandals which to some minds are piquant from their very pruriency. To those of cleaner thoughts and purer mora's such an accusation as that brought against Dr. Huston-now that the committee itself, after hearing the evidence, are divided in opinion in respect to his guilt or innocence-is felt to be almost equivalent to a condemnation and leaves him in a worse position than he would have been if no investigation had been ordered. In any event, and whatever may be the ultimate result of the trial which is yet to come off, his ministerial office is tainted, and his career of usefulness at an end. - Balt. Gazette.

Abram Nelson, charged with stealing the seeret correspondence of Phelps, Dodge & Co., New York, was released Saturday afternoon, but immediately rearrested on a civil suit, and in default of $100,000 committed to jail.

CINCINNATI CONVENTION. Public Meeting of the Friends of Greeley and Brown.

We, the citizens of the city and county of Alexandria, irrespective of party affiliations, feeling the importance of the crisis in our National affairs, and the necessity of re-establishing the government upon equal and just terms to all the States alike; of reform in the civil service department thereof; of the cultivation of amity and peace between sections, and a firmer and broader feeling of Nationality; and believing that the nominees and platform of the Cincinnati Convention represent our interests and the best interests of the country, respectfully invite our fellow-citizens, of all parties, who have at heart the general good, to assemble at 8 o'clock, at LIBERTY HALL, on
